O Necrófago: o caso Albert Moses (Portuguese Edition) John Müller

Albert Moses, sargento do Segundo Regimento de Cavalaria do Exército de Napoleão, filho de Joseph Moses, alcoólatra e assassino, que se mata em sua própria cela ao saber da morte de sua mulher, Anne Ross, prostituta e louca. Albert Moses, fruto de um amor estranho, eternamente enclausurado. Seu nascimento foi a sentença de morte da mãe que morreu no parto. A partir daí, as tragédias seriam uma marca constante em sua vida. Ainda pequeno, Albert passou a ser criado por uma tia. Diferente de tudo que se escreveu até hoje, este livro marca a chegada de um personagem singular à literatura mundial. Com traços finos e desejos nefastos, olhar penetrante e uma loucura que não se traduzem apenas em palavras, cada página deixa o leitor frente a frente com O necrófago, trazido pelas mãos hábeis e soturnas de John Müller, um escritor que conhece a alma humana tão bem como os mistérios e personagens que povoam as noites de Paris. Eis uma obra que, mais que falar de um amor que nunca morre, revela-o pelos olhos de Albert Moses e Isabelle. Mas também desvela uma loucura envolvente que não se permite sanar, apoderando-se deste romance com força e poder desmedidos, contra os quais ninguém consegue lutar. John Müller reconstituiu as memórias de O necrófago, um homem com uma postura autodestrutiva, propiciando um mergulho na depressão do seu mundo sombrio e revelando a exploração da beleza pelo amor de uma mulher e a superação de todos os obstáculos que o tempo impôs à sua vida ao encarcerar, palavra após palavra, a trajetória do primeiro ao “último” dia de sua existência trágica.
