En el corazón de la ciudad levítica (Rocabolsillo) (Spanish Edition) Baltasar Magro

Un incendio destruye casi por completo un hermoso palacio que había sido utilizado por los nazis como cuartel general durante la ocupación de Bohemia. Nikolài Punin, un joven capitán del Ejército Rojo, descubre junto a los restos calcinados de la inmensa biblioteca una sala reservada que contiene manuscritos del siglo XVI que, al parecer, provienen de la ciudad española de Toledo. A partir de aquí, inesperadas y sorprendentes revelaciones nos trasladaran por el pasado y el presente hasta dar con la respuesta de cómo llegaron al hermoso palacio de Duchcov cuadernos y carpetas con el diseño de inventos y avances tecnológicos que sorprenden, aún hoy, a quienes tienen la fortuna de conocerlos. Baltasar Magro construye una absorbente historia, mezcla de ficción y realidad, bajo la mirada del ilustrado caballero de Seingalt, enviado a España por sus hermanos masones para cumplir con una misión secreta, y con quien el lector participará de un viaje hacia las entrañas de la ciudad levítica.
