Calaveras (French Edition) Laya Croves

Calaveras, en tout onze histoires, puisées auprès des indigènes locaux. Toutes vraies, ou considérées comme telles par ceux qui les lui ont transmises. Certaines le sont réellement, ayant été révélées par la presse nationale mexicaine ou américaine. D'autres véhiculées comme faisant partie du folklore et des légendes du Sud du Mexique. Onze histoires où se mêlent les thèmes de la mort, du narcotrafic, de la condition indigène et de la religion, le tout saupoudré d'une écriture légère et souvent teintée d'humour. Plusieurs émotions étreindront le lecteur, de l'attendrissement à la révolte parfois, du sourire aux larmes également. Plus que tout, ces histoires sont un voyage immobile dans un Mexique authentique et généreux, burlesque et décalé, triste et joyeux à la fois, loin des clichés actuels trop souvent véhiculés.
