I told myself I'd never go back to him after finally giving in to the urges two months ago. Once was enough, that was all I needed... at least, that's what I tried to convince myself to believe.

No matter how much progress I made, the cravings continued to test me. I still hid below his open window, listening intently to the groans of pleasure he brought to man after man as I desperately tried to satisfy myself. It was no use. I needed the real thing. When I saw him at the mall everything fell apart.
