Sci-Fi "what if" speculating that through the galaxy all humans are artificially modified? This is the fourth book of Allon Sci-fi. What would humanity do in a billion years given rapid growth in technology we see, in a universe 13 billion years old? Are they here now? Alien machines made of molecules and work with flesh as if molding clay? An individual living for thousands of years has mellowed, not bothered by Gay affection. Immortal living still protects body health perhaps even more. Anger holds new dimensions before an Internet technology grown over a billion years! Jealousy and anger still can risk disaster. Advanced science can not prevent a war of revenge. Does love conquer all, even here? There are reasons to believe it does!
