Discurso en defensa del talento de las mujeres (Spanish Edition) Josefa Amar y Borbón

Discurso en defensa del talento de las mujeres (1786) es un brillante ensayo a favor de la emancipación femenina escrito en la España del siglo XIX. El pilar fundamental sobre el que Josefa Amar construye su discurso —sin cuestionar la igualdad intelectual entre hombres y mujeres— es la exigencia del acceso a la educación, «instrucción» o «ilustración», para poner fin a la «ignorancia absoluta» a la que han sido relegadas la mujeres por parte del varón y que las coloca en una situación similar a la del amo y el esclavo.
