Accidents happen. But Tony Rodriguez' s death wasn't an accident? it was murder. Clues to the crime lay hidden in the journal that was in the back seat of Tony's crumpled car. Now, months after the tragedy, the book remains unopened and neatly wrapped--just as it was when Becca James gave it to her friend Annette, Tony's widow. Annette has moved away to be near family and get on with her life. She believes she may have even found love again. And Becca would like to forget the night when she saw Tony struggling to survive. However, a series of unusual events in both Becca's and Annette's lives suggest that Tony's death was intentional, and they must uncover the truth. But the closer the pair comes to learning what really happened, the closer they are to becoming the next victims of a murderous conspiracy.
