Something in the woods is moving... Something strong, something powerful... Something that has been trapped for more than five centuries together, now come out to wreak its vengeance upon the world...

The fierce warrior Beowulf from the island of Gotland is at war with the neighboring Kingdom of the Svear. Avenging the death of his king when he is called upon by his old friend Hrothgar of the Danes to help protect his kingdom from the killing beast known only as Grendel.

None who have fought the monster has lived to tell the tale.

But Grendel isn't one to be forgotten - his past is murky and his history is entwined with that of Beowulf's own fate.

Will the young warrior be able to defeat the killer beast? Or will the beast consume him, leaving nothing behind but mangled flesh and bone?

Only time will tell.
