Lefebvre revisitado: capitalismo, vida cotidiana y el derecho a la ciudad (Spanish Edition) Carlos A. De Mattos, Felipe Link

Henri Lefebvre desarrolló un fundado análisis crítico sobre la evolución previsible de la dinámica urbana, anticipando el avance de una revolución urbanística a escala planetaria. Situación contextualizada en un orden general regido por la lógica de la mercancía. Hoy en día el profesional aparece como una lectura ineludible para la reflexión del proceso de transformación urbana que se está acelerando en los inicios del siglo XXI.

Bajo esta premisa, el libro busca rescatar el aporte del autor, así como reproblematicar algunas de sus propuestas a la luz de los procesos actuales, considerando las modalidades que ha adquirido la transformación urbana en América Latina y la serie de trabajos que se dedican a explicar estos procesos. El lector se encontrará con una obra que recupera y revaloriza la contribución realizada en este campo por Lefebvre en manos de la Colección de Estudios Urbanos de la Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile.
