Lo que queda de mí (Maeva Young) (Spanish Edition) Kat Zhang

«No debería existir, pero existo...»

Dos personas, un solo cuerpo.

Dos personalidades, una sola cara.

Dos mentes, pero solo puede quedar una.

«Addie y yo nacimos dentro del mismo cuerpo; nuestras almas estaban unidas desde antes de llegar al mundo. Una de nosotras tenía que desaparecer» (Novela juvenil)

En un mundo casi idéntico al nuestro... Todas las personas nacen con dos almas en un mismo cuerpo. Pero, pocos años después, una de las dos se va apagando hasta que el individuo se asienta, y prevalece una de las dos personalidades. Pero hay algunos individuos que nunca se asientan, y pasan a ser los temidos híbridos, que son perseguidos y encerrados.

Addie y Eva son dos hermanas que están tardando en asentarse, para gran preocupación de sus padres. Así que cuando Addie da muestras de convertirse en el alma dominante, todos sienten un gran alivio. Sin embargo, Eva nunca llega a desaparecer. Su cuerpo no le obedece, pero ella sigue allí, y solo Addie lo sabe. Y, cuando descubre que existe la posibilidad de volver a caminar, a reír, a cantar... Se aferra a ella con todas sus fuerzas.

«Una historia sumamente original y provocadora. El profundo vínculo que hay entre Addie y Eva y el misterioso miedo de la sociedad en la que viven los híbridos resultan fascinantes.» —Publishers Weekly

«Una impresionante y novedosa historia que redefine qué significa ser "humano".» —Lauren DeStefano, autora de Efímera

«Una trama original, una fabulosa recreación y unos personajes asombrosos hacen de este libro una lectura maravillosa que reflexiona sobre el significado de ser "humano".» —Book Overdose
