Texas Down: An Post-Apocalyptic EMP Survival Story (The Survivors Book 1) Todd Castle

A correctional worker and doomsday prepper named Hank is caught in the middle of an EMP delivered by foreign attackers.

He must work to keep his family consisting of his daughter and brother safe in a time of desperation while the fabric of society unravels in front of his eyes - witness to the anarchic behavior of those around him.

Hank will need to bear the dangers of scrounging for food, water and supplies while trying to remain on the move while he convinces his family to trust him with their safety using the underground bunker he had been developing over the years, not far from where he worked at the correctional facility. Hank will soon realize, in this new dangerous world - he has more enemies than just the ones responsible for the EMP attack.
