La Vigilia (Spanish Edition) Diego Fonseca

«Él necesitaba recordar como ejercicio intelectual para completar quién era; no preveía que algo cambiase en su vida producto de poner juntos los fragmentos de su memoria que flotaban como un avión siniestrado en un océano...».

El Dr. Casillas, director de un hospital psiquiátrico en Madrid, vive atormentado por diez recuerdos recurrentes que aparecen como imágenes despedazadas y suspendidas. Casillas se empeña en recomponer ese pasado roto que flota como una nebulosa entre su existencia réproba en España y una época siniestra de una Argentina de desaparecidos, con escalas turbias en Perú, Colombia y México.

Narrada como un caleidoscopio de escenas, y haciendo eco de una realidad que se construye con una herramienta tan efímera como el recuerdo —rehén de la subjetividad y la imperfección humanas—, La vigilia presenta una historia de crímenes, abusos, pasiones y flaquezas, envuelta en preguntas universales que asaltarán al lector a cada vuelta de página. ¿Qué conforma la identidad del ser humano? ¿Su pasado? ¿Es la memoria necesaria, su orden, cierta moral? ¿Hacemos justicia al recordar?

La vigilia es un viaje por los vericuetos de la complejidad del ser, de la bajeza y su autojustificación, del poder y sus subterfugios, relatado en una historia en la que se entrelazan el suspenso y la lírica con personajes tan reales, sucios e imperfectos como la vida misma.
