Here And There: A Novel Geraldine Boyce

Newlywds Jenny and Harry Sanders arrive in America, Harry's homeland, after their wedding in England, where Jenny grew up. It is the late forties. They are still young, and still under the influence of their parents, both in America and in England, Thus begins a marriage that lasts through decades. Jenny and Harry settle in Cascade, California, an affluent suburb of San Francisco. They raise children, for lasting friendships, and enter middle age. Crises arise, but love prevails. After Harry's death Jenny faces widowhood as a mature, strong, American woman.
