The Forgetful Demon Slayer (Samantha Savage) Beverly Rae

Her heart whispers that he's the one. But her head echoes with warnings of danger...

Samantha Savage, Book 1

Samantha Savage awakens in a hospital with no memory of how she got there. No memory at all, really—not even of the sexy man claiming to be her husband.

She's assured her memory will return, but she can't shake the feeling she doesn't belong here, mired in suburbia...glimpsing strange creatures in dark corners. Dreaming of fighting demons for possession of a glowing pink pearl.

Josh West, a sorcerer thief, will do almost anything for money, but seducing an amnesiac slayer for The Company crosses the line. Yet if he fails to keep his bargain with the evil leaders of Diablo to persuade his oh-so-sexy "wife" to lead him to the Pearl of Wisdom, both of them will pay with their lives.

Sam can't help falling for Josh, but as memory gradually returns and she uncovers the conspiracy behind the search for the pearl, she becomes less and less sure of which way to turn. She could trust in his love and join him to keep the pearl away from Diablo. Or return to her hard-won career as a slayer—and let him take the fall.

Warning: Before reading, dress comfortably in cool clothing, find a quiet place to read, get ice cubes and/or a big fan. During reading, keep the door locked and your favorite toy nearby. After reading, call your lover.
