Andy Stonecipher's plans for a quiet life up in Oregon Territory blew up in his face when a train wreck stranded him in the middle of the Sonoran Desert with two women and their three children. Had that been his only problem, Andy wouldn't have worried. But when he discovered seven Comancheros following them with the intention of kidnapping the women and children to sell down in Mexico, his predicament suddenly seemed insurmountable. Seven to one odds. Every move he made was countered by the Comancheros. And he couldn't expect any help from bickering women and children . . . could he?
