A New Day in Mississippi: The Corruption in Our Government, and What We Can Do about It in 2011 James Broadwater

When James Broadwater went to work in Mississippi's state government in 2004, he soon found that what he thought was a good place to be employed turned out to be a network of "good ol' boys" who were committed to the status quo of corruption, waste, fraud, abuse, harassment, and persecution, which went all the way to the Governor's Mansion. For six and a half years he risked his job by filing complaints up the chain of command within the agency and charges with a dozen state and federal agencies. He found out that no one would do anything, including the media, so now he is taking his case to the court of public opinion through this book, and running for Governor in 2011! About the Author: James Broadwater and his family own a small business in the Jackson, Mississippi metro area. He is an ordained Southern Baptist minister, former state employee, and veteran of the Mississippi Army National Guard. Mr. Broadwater is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Mississippi in the August 2, 2011 Primary.
