El país que se hizo a tiros (Spanish Edition) Gonzalo España

Desde su bautizo como nación, nuestro país creció y se desarrolló a tiros. La arrogancia de la independencia, las diferentes ideológicas, los temperamentos ardientes, el prestigio de la carrera de las armas, por no mencionar más factores, hicieron que Colombia se abriera paso en medio de continuas guerras intestinas.

Con una prosa certera, lúcida y chispeante, Gonzalo España hace un repaso de todas las guerras de los Mil Días, se sumerge en los hechos, aciertos y desatinos de Bolívar, Santander, José Hilario López, Núñez, Marroquín, Caro, Rafael Reyes, Rafael Uribe Uribe y además, y nos permite ver que la Colombia de hoy se entiende y se explica perfectamente por esa Colombia de ayer, belicosa, intransigente, retardataria, fanática:

Una cosa u otra, las guerras civiles contribuyeron a formar poderosamente la personalidad y el mundo actual de los Colombianos. El país salió de allí, como de una fragua candente. Las instituciones que sobrevivieron, justas o no, se ganaron a punta de fuerza el derecho de continuar existiendo. Cuando en el siglo XX volvimos a enfrentarnos, lo hicimos en parte impulsados por el atavismo político heredado del XIX. Aquel fue el mundo de nuestros bisabuelos y rebisabuelos, al que de tiempo en tiempo sentimos deseos de asomarnos. Las páginas de este libro pretenden ayudar a comprenderlo.
