I also have no idea how long it will be until Josi changes. But the reality hits as the sound of the raging guns go quiet and everything within this room goes still.

We're locked inside a room with a ticking time bomb.

She is worse than everything we just escaped.

The night of the blood moon is upon her. Josi must face the coldness inside—the bloodthirsty darkness that kills with tremendous strength and no thought.

Luke has one last chance to save her from certain death. But guilt is a heavy weight on his soul, and if he is ever to find redemption—and love—then the truth of his identity must come out.

Will Josi ever be able to forgive his lies? Will she find the strength to fight the darkness inside? And will she survive long enough to do the impossible—join the Resistance, and destroy the Cure once and for all?

In the final episode of Fury questions are answered, battles won and lost, and love put through the greatest of all tests.

This is a novella-length episode of Fury. The collected edition will be made available simultaneously with Episode 3. For more information visit momentumbooks.com.au/books/fury-book-one-of-the-cure-omnibus-edition/.
