Formas reales de la dominación del estado: perspectivas interdisciplinarias del poder y la política (Spanish Edition) Alejandro Agudo Sanchíz, Marco Estrada Saavedra

Desde diversas disciplinas, los autores de este libro se ocupan de lo que la ciencia política normalmente descarta: las condiciones de posibilidad de la política institucional y sus variadas relaciones con diferentes segmentos de su entorno. Asimismo, discuten diversas dimensiones de poder (corporativo-clientelar, burocrático, liberal, "masculinista" y heteronormativo) y examinan cómo éstas se vinculan estrechamente con normas, procedimientos, privilegios y desigualdades predominantes y comúnmente aceptadas en determinadas sociedades.
