Mons Giuseppe Vairo (POLLINE) (Italian Edition) Edmondo Soave

Opera dai tratti tipici della ricerca storica, ha il merito di trarre da un oscuramento immotivato la figura del vescovo Giuseppe Vairo. Questa biografia gli restituisce i contorni luminosi e drammatici di un grande Pastore del popolo, impegnato a realizzare nella Chiesa del Mezzogiorno d'Italia il disegno riformista del Concilio Vaticano II, dopo averlo profeticamente preconizzato. La ricerca dell'autore si fa notare per l'ampiezza della documentazione e per l'impegno teso a inserire la biografia individuale in uno scenario storico più ampio e complesso dei processi culturali, pastorali e politici in corso nella Chiesa cattolica a partire dagli anni Sessanta del Novecento e dell'impatto del Concilio Vaticano II sul cattolicesimo, senza tacere i sommovimenti coevi nella società mondiale e nelle vicende politiche dell'Italia fino alle soglie del Terzo Millennio.

Edmondo Soave, giornalista professionista, ha conseguito il baccellierato in filosofia alla Gregoriana, e la laurea, sempre in filosofia, alla Sapienza di Roma. Ha collaborato con "La Stampa" e con "Mondoperaio" curando anche un quaderno monografico su I socialisti e la questione cattolica. Vincitore di concorso in Rai, lavora nella Redazione di Potenza. Nel 2004 per i nostri tipi ha pubblicato il saggio Dopo Scanzano, storia di scorie.
